MG482 - Extremis ExTempore Barbecue Table

The ExTempore barbecue table can either stand independently or at the end of an ExTempore table. It is the same width as the ExTempore table meaning that it can look like one piece of furniture.

The ExTempore barbecue is equipped with adjustable grills and a small wok to keep the food warm. The brackets can be used as handgrips or for hanging the accessories onto. The barbecue can be closed with a lid and is made of stainless steel. Its frame as the frames of the other products of the Ex Tempore range is made of anodised aluminium, its joints of stainless steel and the tabletop of FSC labelled Jatoba wood.

The barbecue includes 2 grills and a wok.
